Late Coming:
All employees are expected to report on time for work. Employments are requested to adhere to the office timings indicated above, irrespective of position. Though there is no formal mechanism to penalize for late coming, habitual late coming is construed as a mis-conduct and could lead eventually to necessary disciplinary action.

On occasions because of urgent personal work or contingencies any employee who wants to come in late or leave early (up to a maximum of 1 hrs) he may do so, but only after prior verbal permission from his /her supervisor / functional head.

Outdoor/Tour Duty:
In order to assist the HR Department to adhere to good personal security practices, all employees leaving office during office hours on official duty should inform reception on their respective departure / arrival time and contact telephone number.

In addition, all employees going out on official duty directly from their residence should inform the respective functional head and reception so as make the necessary entries in the attendance register and avoid being marked absent.
House Keeping Practices:
All employees are requested to keep their working environment clean and in order, so as to adhere to good house keeping practices.

Organization productivity tool/ equipment must be properly cared for and maintained, however, in case of problems encountered in relation to equipment must immediately notify administration, including necessary follow up to ensure that the fault / problem is rectified. All employees are requested to handle equipment with care, not only equipment that is their direct responsibility, but common office equipment as well.

In addition, employees are also requested to consciously handle consumables to avoid wastage viz. stationary items, electricity and water. A neat, clean working environment is reflective of a conducive and healthy organization. The organization would request all its employees to keep it that way.

Smoke-Free Workplace:
ASWASRO provide a smoke-free workplace for all employees. Smoking is not allowed within the office bay areas, smoking is not allowed in the designated areas viz. car parking alley. It is hence the responsibility of all employees that, the parking area is not littered with cigarette butts, but on the contrary kept clean.

Ethical use of E-mail & Internet facilities
